Independence Day Celebration

68th Independence Day celebration was held with great patriotic fervor at Tatachem D.A.V. Public School Babrala. Principal Mr. Jagdish Singh welcomed all the guests. National Flag, the pride of our nation was hoisted by the Vice President of T.C.L. and Chairman of T.C.D.A.V. Mr. S. Bhaskar Kumar. Then a guard of honor was given to the chief guest by School N.C.C. Cadets and T.C.L. security personnel. Thereafter the parade was inspected by the chief guest. On this great occasion Chairman Mr. S. Bhaskar Kumar paid tribute to the great martyrs and freedom fighters of India and congratulated all on 68th Independence Day. He delivered a very apprising speech in which he threw light on this red letter day and took a vow to take the school to the zenith of success. He congratulated all the teachers for receiving the appreciation letter from Human Resource Development Minister for their efforts in producing a very good result in class XII. Mr. Bhaskar also congratulated class XII science topper Miss Vineeta Mahajan for getting annual Scholarship for her higher education. On this occasion winners of painting competition (organized by T.C.L.) were also awarded. Class X student Aditi Shukla was also congratulated by Principal Sir for winning the prize of ten thousand rupees in an on-line essay writing series held by C.B.S.E. After that a short cultural program was presented. The program commenced with the performance of our little singers who showcased their talent by presenting a patriotic song. Miss Jahnvi Saxena and Master Avichal Bhatnagar delivered very enthusiastic speeches. Besides this Hindi Skit, action Song and dance performance also evoked the patriotic fervor of the audience. On this occasion Mr. S. Bhaskar Kumar, many other T.C.L. authorities, parents, TCDAV staff and students were present. The program was anchored by Miss Pallavi Rani and Miss Saloni Singh. It came to an end with the vote of thanks proposed by Mrs. Vineeta Srivastava along with the sweets distribution to our blooming buds. Overall the program was a grand success and appreciated by all.

JANMASHTAMI CELEBRATION

To commemorate the birth anniversary of Lord Krishna and keep the young minds aware about their rich glorious culture and festivals, TCDAV celebrated Janmashtami on 16th August 2014 with zeal and zest. A special assembly was conducted on this auspicious occasion in which a short cultural program was presented by our students. A captivating skit was staged depicting lord Krishna's birth, childhood, various pranks and vibrant leelas. Small kids dressed up in dazzling attires as Krishna, Radha and Sakha brought Vrindavan alive on stage with their enthralling dance performance. Various aspects of Lord Krishna's life were beautifully presented on stage. The program was well attended and appreciated by TCDAV students and teachers.

GANDHI JAYANTI CELEBRATION

On 2nd October, D.A.V. family celebrated the birthday of two luminaries of Indian history- Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri. On this great occasion a special assembly was conducted and the students of K.G. wing participated very actively. Students of classes L.K.G., UKG, I and II recited various poems based on Gandhiji's life. A mesmerizing skit was presented by class I students on the life history of Mahatma Gandhi. Besides this various aspects of Gandhiji's life were presented very lively. Two students of class II, Vinayak Choudhary and Vansh Dixit brought the memory of these legends alive on stage by dressing up as Gandhi ji and Lal Bahadur Shastri respectively. A very informative speech about Gandhiji's life and ideals was delivered by class II student Shashwat Shukla. The thought of the day was presented by Mritunjay Pratap Singh. A very melodious group song 'Aaj hai do October ka din' was sung by class II students. The program was anchored by Class II students Kanishka Singh and Ayan Khan very confidently. Principal, Mr. Jagdish Singh appreciated the efforts of all the students and teachers. He urged all the students to be the staunch follower of the ideals and values of these great souls. The program was well attended by TCDAV students and teachers and appreciated by all.

TEACHER'S DAY CELEBRATION

The word 'teacher' conjures up the image of a person who is the apostle of sacrifice, dedication and love. To honour these outstanding personnel of our school and observe the birth anniversary of India's second President Dr. S. Radha Krishnan, TCDAV students celebrated their day with vigour and enthusiasm on 5th September, 2014. The special day started with assembly organized in a different way. Our senior students took charge of prayers, speeches, thought and commands. Other students of junior classes felt excited to see their seniors in the appearance of teachers. Students of class XII took charge of all the classes as a mark of respect for their teachers and put in their best to get the best teacher award. In each wing the winners were declared for the best teacher award. On this occasion special cultural program was presented by the students of Classes XI and XII. It was anchored by Miss Nandani and Master Dheeraj Bansal

Vibrant dances, interesting games and a small skit were staged in a well-coordinated manner, which arrested every single heart in the audience.

A special program for the teachers was presided over by Mr. S. Bhaskar Kumar, Vice President of T.C.L. and Chairman of TCDAV. The program was also graced by the esteemed presence of distinguished guests Mr. Umanand Jha, Mr. Ajay Dwivedi and other LMC Members. The program started with the ceremonial welcome of the chief guest and other dignitaries followed by lighting of the lamp and a floral tribute to Dr. S. Radha Krishnan. Addressing the teachers Mr. Bhaskar appreciated teachers' role in building a strong nation and invoked them to work for quality education to transform the students into responsible citizens of tomorrow. Principal, Mr. Jagdish Singh also threw light on the dedicated role of the teachers in shaping the life of students in today's challenging scenario. In order to recognize their contribution gifts were given to all the T.C.D.A.V. staff by the chairman and other guests.
