

TCDAV sends you heartfelt wishes for the festive season ahead.
May every life sparkle with joy, peace and prosperity!

SAMVARDHAN

A Workshop for Senior Secondary Teachers

Under the aegis of D.A.V. C. M.C., Chitra Gupta Road, New Delhi and with the kind guidance of Regional Centre for Academic Excellence, UP and UK Zone, Tatchem D.A.V. Public School, Babrala hosted a two-day workshop SAMVARDHAN on teacher enrichment and empowerment for Sr. Sec. Teachers of UP-1 and Panipat Zone in four subjects- Physics, Computer Science, Accountancy and Business Studies. A total of 36 teachers of 12 DAV Public Schools including the host school attended the workshop.

The workshop was formally inaugurated by the Principal by lighting the ceremonial lamp along with Mr. H.P. Panchal, Principal D.A.V. Centenary Public School, Huda, Panipat, Ms. Sapna Goyal, Principal, D.A.V. Public School, Samalkha and other Resource Persons. Later, Mr. GK Misra, Principal, Nutan Public School, Dilshad Garden, Delhi also joined as a Resource Person. After a brief cultural programme and formal welcome, the participants were told the importance, scope and the purpose of the workshop. They were exhorted and inspired to participate in the workshop wholeheartedly and make meaningful contribution to make the workshop a success.

After the inaugural session, all the participants were sent to their respective venues for training. For two days (28th and 29th June 2016), the Resource Persons provided guidance, re-orientation and reinforcement to the participants in their respective subjects. Participants were also honoured by the kind visit of Regional Director (UP & Panipat Zone), Dr S. Marriya on the first day. Dr. Marriya encouraged and motivated all the participants. In the common session at the end of the first day, three missionaries of The Brahmkumaris exhorted all on physical and mental wellness, harmonious coordination between body, mind and soul and the value of meditation for teachers. A session of meditation was also conducted which proved to be very effective and beneficial.

The workshop came to an end with a valedictory session on 29th June 16. The Resource Persons were honoured with mementoes and certificates of participation were given away to the participants by the Principal, Tatchem D.A.V. Public School, Babrala. They were inspired to perform their duties in the best interest of the students. A vote of thanks was proposed to all for their efforts to make the workshop successful.

FOUNDERS DAY

2016

An Ebullient Evening

The evening of May 7th, 2016 truly turned out to be glittery and engrossing when the TCDAVians exhibited their talents, flair and hard work for celebrating school's Founder's Day. A ceremonial welcome was given to our Chief Guest, Mr. S. Bhaskar Kumar, Chairman of the school and other distinguished guests. The inaugural ceremony commenced with the auspicious lighting of 'Deep Shikha', the lamp of knowledge by the Chief Guest and the Principal Mr. Jagdish Singh. After the lamp lighting, Principal, Mr. Jagdish Singh accorded a very warm and heartfelt welcome to all the guests and presented the annual school report tracing out the progress made in the last session. Our honorable Chief Guest Shri S. Bhaskar Kumar shared his pearls of wisdom delivering a very motivational speech in which he applauded the efforts of the entire team of T.C.D.A.V. Thereafter many students and teachers were honoured in academic and non-academic field. Mr. Surendra Singh (teacher), Mr. Chandan Singh Bist (office staff) Mr. Rambaboo Singh (office staff) were awarded the 'Principal Cup' for the remarkable proficiency in their respective field during the session. On this occasion 'Darpan', school magazine was also released by our honourable chief guest.

The splendid cultural extravaganza commenced with the D.A.V. Anthem followed by the pious chanting of Vedic Mantra. To enable a direct communion with the supreme power the students presented Saraswati Vandana. Our tiny tots rocked the stage with their moves and grooves and set the evening rolling. The innovative symphony of orchestra captivated the crowd. The exhilarating performance of Folk Dance also added great flamboyance. The mesmerizing enactment based on our great epic Ramcharitmanas instilled the feeling of sacrifice and brotherly love in each heart. Semi classical dance was a harmonious blend of music, rhythm and dance and received a great applause of the august gathering. The vigor and zing with which the students displayed aerobics and gymnastic, stimulated the audience to be cautious about their fitness. Mrs Ekta Dwivedi, Mrs Anna Betty Thomas, Arpita Banerji (student) Jahanvi Saxena (student) Pranilee Srivastava (student) and Divya Belwal (student) compered the programme. The program came to an end with the national anthem and vote of thanks. It was well attended and appreciated by all.

1090 Women Powerline

An Awareness Session on Women Helpline Initiative

On May 18, 2016, TCDV hosted an awareness session about UP Government's initiative to address the concern for justice, empowerment and protection of women. Mr. Atul Saxena, Superintendent of Police, Sambhal district had a candid talk with girl students. Mr. Atul Saxena encouraged girls to be brave and report any kind of injustice being faced by them or any other woman in their vicinity. He told about a helpline service 1090 launched by UP Government to help women.

On this occasion, Mrs. Sangeeta Bhargava, District Coordinator of 'Power Angel' another initiative by UP government invoked students to join hands with state government to prevent violence against women. Power Angel, Rupali Srivastava turned every heart emotional with her soulful song, 'Nanhi si jaan...'. Another Power Angel, Sajida Bi who never let her physical disability hinder her ambition to achieve her dreams became an epitome of strength for girls.

C.O. Gunnaur and Mr. R.N. Rai, Administrative Officer TCL were special guests in the session. At the end Principal, Mr. Jagdish Singh thanked all the dignitaries present on this occasion and motivated students to avail benefit of these initiatives.

Better than a thousand hollow words, is one word that brings peace- Gautam Buddha

A SESSION WITH BRAHMAKUMARIS

In order to bring about the moral upliftment of the students, the school organised a lecture of the Brahmakumaris on 27th July, 16 in a special assembly. First of all Mrs Ranjan Bhatnagar told about the programme, its purpose and its importance, and introduced Brahmakumari Jaya Shree who, in addition to being a bright academician, is an able Raja Yoga teacher also. BK Jaya Shree underlined the need and importance of a strong moral standard, positive thinking and a good value system. In this era of competition, she said, so much tension puts a negative effect on our health. She defined the values. She said that we worship three Goddesses- Lakshmi for wealth, Saraswati for knowledge, and Goddess Durga for Shakti. All these qualities like honesty, integrity, truthfulness, personal hygiene, kindness, etc. are our values. They make our life worth living and happy. We should, she said, try to know who we are, what we are and what we are for. She also told about Raja Yoga and its techniques to make the mind strong and peaceful. In the end of the session. Principal Mr. Jagdish Singh thanked BK Jaya Shree and inspired the students to follow her teaching and advice. All the students and the staff members attended the session.

Investiture Ceremony 2016-17

“If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more and become more, then you are a leader.” – John Quincy Adams

To inculcate the leadership qualities among the students and to give them a feel of school administration, a special cabinet was formed and the investiture ceremony was held in school auditorium. All the teachers and students were present there to bless the young leaders. Bevan Thomas and Divya Belwal were bestowed with the responsibility of leading the school council as Head Boy and Head Girl respectively. Principal, Mr. Jagdish Singh administered the oath of respective portfolios to the new school council. School Head Boy along with the Head Girl Divya Belwal, Vice Head Girl Pranjlee Srivastava and Vice Head Boy Sumit Saxena and other council members received the high held school flag. Aman Kumar and Mansi Gautam were declared the Cultural Captain of the school.

Adarsh Chaudhary and Megha Kumari were assigned the portfolios of School Sports Captains. This was followed by the house captains and house prefects taking the oath of office. House teachers pinned the badges to the members of Prefectorial Board. All the selected members were conferred with badges by the principal Mr. Jagdish Singh and their House teachers. . In his address, Principal, Mr. Jagdish Singh congratulated the newly appointed school cabinet members and encouraged them to be committed to their role as a leader. He also motivated them to be exemplary in their behavior. The ceremony concluded with the singing of National Anthem.

Shri Krishna Janmastami Celebration

Haathi Ghora Palaki, Jai Kanhaiyya Lal Ki
Nand Ghar Aanand Bhayo, Jai Kanhaiyya Lal Ki

Lord Shri Krishna, the Supreme Being, The Lord of this Universe, the Regulator of this world, the Preacher of Bhagwad Gita, the Performer of Maharaasa, the eternal Flute Player of Brindavan, Yogeshwar, Jagadguru, innumerable names. He is considered as the full incarnation of Lord Vishnu. Why not, then, His birthday called Shri Krishna Janmastami be celebrated with full devotional zeal, prayers, incantations

Tatachem D.A.V. Public School, Babrala celebratyed Janmastami with full devotional fervour on 24th August, 16 in the School. In a special assembly called for the purpose in the auditorium, the celebration started with an introduction to Janmastami and its significance, and then some important glimpses from Lord Krishna's life were staged in the form of glimpse. In the first glimpse, baby Krishna is in the cradle, and Gopis and Gwals are joyfully singing and dancing ' Nand Ghar Aanand Bhayo Jai Kanhaiyya Lal Ki'. They are rocking the cradle and congratulating Nand and Yashoda's on the birth of Krishna, and flowers are being showered from the sky.

In the second glimpse, Krishna as a child is sitting with Radha and the other Gopis and Gwals are joyfully singing and dancing 'Chhoti Choti Gaiyyan, Chote Chote Gwal'. The scene is remarkable for its props and dresses. The gopis are coming with 'dahi-matki'. The tiny -tots dressed as Gopis and Gwals look very cute and beautiful.

In the third scene, there are several pairs of Krishna and Radha and the Gopis are complaining to Mayya Yashoda that her son Krishna troubles them a lot. They dance to the tune 'Maiyya Yashod, Ye Tera Kanhayya,

In the fourth scene or jhanki, there is Brij Rasia Dance. Shri Krishna is in the middle and the Gopis and Gwals are joyfully singing and dancing to the tune 'Banke Bihari Ki Dekh Chhata, Mero Man Raha Gayo Lata Pata.....'

In the end Principal Sir appreciated the efforts of the students and the teachers who guided and trained them. He told about many events from Shri Krishna's life and inspired all to read His Bhagwad Gita. He called such events as part and parcel of our life and encouraged the students to participate in such events.

